

Rules

Contributed by Mistress

Greetings piggies.

In order to communicate with me and , if you are lucky, get my attention and serve me then you must follow these rules.

- I am the Mistress, I make the rules, I have the right to change them.
- When you are serving me or talking to me I must be your first priority.
- You must not instant message me unless you have paid a tribute first - or you will be ignored.
- For IM with voice and/or with webcam, you must pay the correct tribute in advance.
- To be taken seriously you must send a tribute and apply to serve me. Applications without tribute will be ignored.
- You must be respectful and obedient at all times.
- Always remember your place.
- Don't claim to be a money slave if you can't afford to serve me.
